We're delighted to announce the Nuclear Skills Annual Awards Dinner to be held at the Palace Hotel, Manchester.

Following the success of the inaugural World-Class Nuclear Skills Awards 2009, The National Skills Academy for Nuclear and Cogent Sector Skills Council are to hold their second collaborative Skills Awards Evening for the industry.

Representatives from a wide-range of high-profile organisations will attend the event including major corporates, contractors, academics, funding authorities, regulators, training bodies and other key third parties.

The dinner will be a unique opportunity for employers and stakeholders across the Nuclear Industry to join together for an informal evening at which success in workforce development will be celebrated through a number of key awards.

The evening will conclude with a stimulating after dinner speech by Penny Mallory whose many talents include being the first woman to complete in a world car rally and presenting many TV programmes including the Used Car Roadshow.

Awards will include...

- Regional Nuclear Apprentice of the Year Award for Northwest/Northeast, Southeast/East, Southwest, Scotland and Wales
- National Nuclear Apprentice of the Year
- Scottish Nuclear HND Student of the Year
- Most Promising Nuclear Foundation Degree Student of the Year
- Nuclear Bursary Award Student of the Year
- Outstanding Leadership in Skills Award

Sponsorship

This high profile event will be the perfect evening for networking or corporate entertaining – key sponsorship opportunities are available for companies seeking to showcase their activities. For further information, please contact Mary Kinsella on 01925 607045

About us

Cogent Sector Skills Council has been licensed by Government to provide employers in our sector with the opportunity for strategic action to meet their skills needs.
