

Electrical / Instrumentation / Control Engineers: North East England

Attractive salary, healthcare, pension

Sembcorp UK is a major supplier of industrial utilities to large international companies in key manufacturing sectors including chemicals and biofuels. Based at the Wilton International site on Teesside and part of Sembcorp Industries, a Singapore-based global energy, water and marine group, we have invested almost £200 million in renewable energy plus other asset additions and improvements and further major investment is planned.

Sembcorp Utilities UK Limited has opportunities for talented Electrical, Control and Instrumentation Engineers at our

Please complete our on-line application form on our Careers Page at: www.sembcorp.co.uk or post your current CV and salary expectations to us to the address below or email jobs@sembcorp.com

Human Resources
Sembcorp Utilities UK Limited
PO Box 1985, Wilton International
Middlesbrough, TS90 8WS

Wilton site near Redcar, to develop and implement solutions to complex engineering challenges.

The successful candidates will have previous experience in these fields and qualified to degree level, holding or working towards Chartered Engineer status. Previous experience of heavy industry or combined heat and power, plant transmission and distribution systems would be an advantage.

Further details are available on:
www.sembcorp.co.uk or email: jobs@sembcorp.com
Applicants must have the right to live and work within the UK.

Closing date for applications:
5 August 2011