We're delighted to announce the Nuclear Skills Annual Awards Dinner to be held at the Palace Hotel, Manchester.

The National Skills Academy for Nuclear and Cogent Sector Skills Council are to hold their first collaborative Skills Awards Dinner for the industry. This will be a significant event for both nuclear employers and stakeholders. Representatives from a wide-range of high-profile organisations will attend the event including major corporates, contractors, academics, funding authorities, regulators, training bodies and other key parties.

The dinner will be a unique opportunity for employers and stakeholders across the Nuclear Industry to join together for an informal evening at which success in workforce development will be celebrated through a number of key Awards.

The keynote speaker will be Lord Young, the Parliamentary Under Secretary of State for Skills and Apprenticeships, and the evening will conclude with a stimulating after dinner speech by Steve Williams MBE, British Rower and Double Olympic Champion.

Awards will include...

- Regional Apprentice of the Year Award for Northwest/Northeast, Southeast/East, Southwest, Scotland and Wales
- National Apprentice of the Year sponsored by BNES
- Foundation Degree/HNC/HND student of the year
- Outstanding Leadership in Skills

Sponsorship

This high profile event will be the perfect evening for networking or corporate entertaining – key sponsorship opportunities are available for companies seeking to showcase their activities. For further information, please contact Mary Kinsella on 01925 607045
